Boy Scout BBQ

Get Your Boy Scout BBQ TODAY

BSA Troop 383 has worked all last week to provide some of the best Boston Butt smoked BBQ around. They started with a proprietary rub and slow-smoked the meat overnight. They chop the meat and package it in one-pound containers to sell to Concordia and the public. Fundraising pays for their troop activities and camps that they attend all year long.

The BBQ is perfect for Sunday dinners, summer get-togethers, and graduation parties. Give it to a shut-in or a family member as a gift. Purchase it for an office or for your best clients!

If you ordered ahead, you can pick up your BBQ after each service TODAY or Monday, May 18th, from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. at Youth Central.

If you missed out, get in touch with Matt Nolte at mgnol176@gmail.com or William Smith at smithw@sherrillfurniture.com.

The BBQ is $12/lb and comes frozen.

From the Search Committee for the Director of Music:

Update from the Search Committee for Director of Music. The committee has narrowed the list of nineteen names to 9 candidates. Seven of the nine are rostered with the LCMS. We are now waiting for responses from the 9 candidates indicating they are open to an interview with the committee. At that time, we will inform the congregation of the individuals' identities and proceed with the interviews as soon as possible. Continue to pray for the candidates as we move forward. God will help us get through this process. Doug Brady BOE. Committee members are: Gina Sigmon, Briana Welch, Kevin Graudin, Evelyn Caldwell, Martha Staley, and Doug Brady.
